

I'm very concerned that BellSouth's petition constitutes a threat to independent ISP's if they and other carriers are not required to provide access and the necessary connections required for independent ISP's like mine to satisfy their customers. My ISP is local and provides outstanding service and technical support.